

In Nagoya City Yagoto Crematorium and Nagoya City Daini Crematorium, the following articles, which may negatively affect proper working of the crematory furnace and ash-gathering after cremation, are prohibited from being cremated, in accordance with Article 31.2.7 of Detailed Regulations for Enforcement of Nagoya City Crematorium Ordinances.

If they are cremated, the cremation will take longer, the surrounding environment will be affected negatively, the body could be damaged by exploded articles, melted objects could become attached to bones, which may cause us to have trouble in gathering the ash, or the cremation could be otherwise interrupted.

Please place only “fresh flowers”, “small foods and beverages”, “letters and photos”, etc. as burial articles in the coffin.

Burial articles, etc. which should not be cremated (example)

(1) Spray-cans, batteries and canned goods, etc.

(They burst and may damage the inside of the crematory furnace.)

Spray-cans

Gas lighters

Batteries

Cans and canned goods

(2) Glassware and metals, etc.

(They melt and may interfere with the ash-gathering.)

Glass bottles

Glasses

Watches

Cellular phones and smart phones

Dolls and Buddhist statues

Coins and precious metals

(3) Plastic and rubber products, etc.

(Including coffins made from any similar materials)

Bags and handbags

Wallets

Synthetic leather products

Portable audio players

CDs and DVDs

Glasses

Canes

Shoes and sandals

Balls

Packages of snacks

Dolls

Cosmetics (container)

Both Amuse

Boots

(4) Large or many fruits, large quantities of alcohol or juice, etc.

(They may give out an unpleasant odor.)

Larger than bite-sized fruits

More than a paper cup of beverages

(5) Many books, papers, blankets and cotton bedclothes, etc.

(They are hard to burn and may produce a large quantity of ashes.)

Many books (Including Bibles, scriptures, albums, etc.)

Cushions

Large stuffed toys

Blankets and bedclothes

Clothes and furs

(6) Absorbent foam for fresh flowers, etc. (flameproof materials) and dry ice, etc.

(They cause incomplete combustion and may result in the break-down of crematory furnaces.)

Absorbent foam for fresh flowers

Refrigerants

Dry ice

Carbon products, etc. (flameproof)

* In addition to the articles described here, please do not cremate any other articles which fall under any of the categories above.

[Request] If the deceased has a pacemaker or any similar thing in the body, please inform Nagoya City Daini Crematorium or the funeral company.